The Mission of the Sisters of St. Joseph

Since the early beginnings in the 17th century France, the Sisters of St. Joseph have shared a common mission: "to bring all people into union with God and with one another; serving their spiritual and corporal needs in all the works of mercy within the power of the Congregation."

Today, as Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange, we collectively and individually focus our unique and diverse talents to bring unity, compassion and reconciliation to a troubled world.

Because of our desire to follow the example of Jesus, each of us is deeply committed to alleviating the conditions that cause ignorance, poverty, suffering and oppression. It is our commitment to God and our love of Jesus that compel us to participate in these works.

The Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange

Religious Life has always been characterized by prayer, ministry and community. But today, more than ever, serving God can be an active, joyous life of challenge, spiritual fulfillment and personal growth.

As a Sister of St. Joseph of Orange, each of us has the freedom and the support to pursue personal and common goals and to really make a difference in the world.

A Life Focused on God

At the core of each Sister's commitment to the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange is her relationship with God. The stories of how God has called us are as varied and unique as the Sisters. It is our daily relationship with God, expressed in prayer and the Sacraments, that forms the faith foundation of our own vocation and our life together as a Community.

Using Your God-Given Talents to the Fullest

The ministry of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange is both far-reaching and diverse. We call upon specialized talents of most occupations to fulfill our ministry.

Once you have become a Sister, the members of the Congregation will work with you to determine how you may best contribute according to your own aptitudes, interests and the needs of the Church and world around us.

A Community of Mutual Support and Friendship

No matter what your age, background or past experience may be, as a Sister, you will share the common purpose and vision that bonds the Congregation together. You'll feel it in the friendships that will develop and in the understanding and support that you'll receive as you work within your ministry.
